

O Lord, open our lips

All and our mouth shall proclaim your praise.

In your resurrection, O Christ,

All let heaven and earth rejoice. Alleluia.

*One or more of the following is said or sung:
this or another prayer of thanksgiving*

Blessed are you, Lord God of our salvation, to you be praise and glory for ever.

As once you ransomed your people from Egypt and led them to freedom in the promised land, so now you have delivered us from the dominion of darkness and brought us into the kingdom of your risen Son.

May we, the first fruits of your new creation, rejoice in this new day you have made,
and praise you for your mighty acts.

Blessed be God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

All Blessed be God for ever.

Christ our passover has been sacrificed for us: ◆

so let us celebrate the feast,

not with the old leaven of corruption and wickedness: ◆

but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

1 Corinthians 5.7b, 8

Christ once raised from the dead dies no more: ◆ death has no more dominion over him.

In dying he died to sin once for all: ◆ in living he lives to God.

See yourselves therefore as dead to sin: ◆

and alive to God in Jesus Christ our Lord.

Romans 6.9–11

Christ has been raised from the dead: ♦

the first fruits of those who sleep.

For as by man came death: ♦

by man has come also the resurrection of the dead;

for as in Adam all die: ♦

even so in Christ shall all be made alive.

1 Corinthians 15.20–22

All Glory to the Father and to the Son
and to the Holy Spirit;
as it was in the beginning is now
and shall be for ever. Amen.

This opening prayer may be said

The night has passed, and the day lies open before us;

let us pray with one heart and mind.

Silence is kept.

As we rejoice in the gift of this new day,
so may the light of your presence, O God,
set our hearts on fire with love for you;
now and for ever.

All Amen.

Psalmody

The appointed psalmody is said.

If there are two Scripture readings, the first may be read here, or both may be read after the canticle.

Canticle

Refrain:

All In your unfailing love, O Lord,
you lead the people whom you have redeemed.

Alleluia.

I will sing to the Lord, who has triumphed gloriously, ◆
the horse and his rider he has thrown into the sea.

The Lord is my strength and my song ◆ and has become my salvation.

This is my God whom I will praise, ◆
the God of my forebears whom I will exalt.

The Lord is a warrior, ◆
the Lord is his name.

Your right hand, O Lord, is glorious in power: ◆
your right hand, O Lord, shatters the enemy.

At the blast of your nostrils, the sea covered them; ◆
they sank as lead in the mighty waters.

In your unfailing love, O Lord, ◆
you lead the people whom you have redeemed.

And by your invincible strength ◆
you will guide them to your holy dwelling.

You will bring them in and plant them, O Lord, ◆
in the sanctuary which your hands have established.

Exodus 15.1b-3,6,10,13,17

All Glory to the Father and to the Son
and to the Holy Spirit;
as it was in the beginning is now
and shall be for ever. Amen.

All In your unfailing love, O Lord,
you lead the people whom you have redeemed. Alleluia.

Scripture Reading

*One or more readings appointed for the day are read.
The reading(s) may be followed by a time of silence.*

Death is swallowed up in victory.

All Where, O death, is your sting?

Christ is risen from the dead,
the first fruits of those who have fallen asleep.

All Death is swallowed up in victory.

The trumpet will sound and the dead shall be raised.

All Where, O death, is your sting?

We shall not all sleep,
but we shall be changed.

All Death is swallowed up in victory.

Where, O death, is your sting?

from 1 Corinthians 15

Gospel Canticle

The Benedictus (The Song of Zechariah) is normally said, or The Song of Christ's Glory (here) may be said

Refrain:

All The Lord is risen from the tomb
who for our sakes hung upon the tree. Alleluia.

Blessed be the Lord the God of Israel, ◆ who has come to his people and set them free.

He has raised up for us a mighty Saviour, ◆
born of the house of his servant David.

Through his holy prophets God promised of old ◆
to save us from our enemies, from the hands of all that hate us,

To show mercy to our ancestors, ♦
and to remember his holy covenant.
This was the oath God swore to our father Abraham: ♦
to set us free from the hands of our enemies, Free to worship him without fear, ♦ holy and righteous in his sight all the days of our life.
And you, child, shall be called the prophet of the Most High, ♦ for you will go before the Lord to prepare his way,
To give his people knowledge of salvation ♦
by the forgiveness of all their sins.
In the tender compassion of our God ♦
the dawn from on high shall break upon us,
To shine on those who dwell in darkness and the shadow of death, ♦ and to guide our feet into the way of peace.

Luke 1.68-79

All Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit;
as it was in the beginning is now
and shall be for ever. Amen.

All The Lord is risen from the tomb
who for our sakes hung upon the tree. Alleluia.

Prayers

On this day that the Lord has made,
let us pray for the people he has redeemed.

That we may live as those who believe in the triumph of the cross:
Lord, hear us.

Lord, graciously hear us.

That all people may receive the good news of his victory:

Lord, hear us.

Lord, graciously hear us.

That those born to new life in the waters of baptism

may know the power of his resurrection:

Lord, hear us.

Lord, graciously hear us.

That those who suffer pain and anguish

may find healing and peace in the wounds of Christ:

Lord, hear us.

Lord, graciously hear us.

That in the undying love of Christ

we may be united with all who have died in the faith of Christ:

Lord, hear us.

Lord, graciously hear us.

Let us commend the world, in which Christ rose from the dead,

to the mercy and protection of God.

Silence may be kept. Names and other prayer intentions may be added at this time.

The Collect of the day (here) or the following is said

God of life,

who for our redemption gave your only-begotten Son

to the death of the cross, and by his glorious resurrection have delivered us from the power of our enemy:

grant us so to die daily to sin,

that we may evermore live with him in the joy of his risen life;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

The Lord's Prayer is said (here)

Rejoicing in God's new creation,
as our Saviour taught us, so we pray

All Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come, your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.

Lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours

now and for ever.

Amen.

The Conclusion

May the risen Christ grant us the joys of eternal life.

All Amen.

Let us bless the Lord. Alleluia, alleluia.

All Thanks be to God. Alleluia, alleluia.
